KU does not have a maximum. Students need to have 30 upper-level hours from KU to graduate in addition to meeting the requirements of the degree.

CDS D21. Are the military/ veteran credit transfer policies published on your website? Yes

If yes, provide the URL for the policy:

<https://registrar.ku.edu/transfer-credit>

CDS D22. Describe other military/ veteran transfer credit policies unique to your institution:

KU awards a minimum of four credits of Health, Sport, and Exercise Science credits for the completion of basic training for the United States Armed Forces.

If military affiliation is noted on the KU application, we automatically request a Joint Service Transcript. Students can also request one themselves and send it to us at transfercredit@ku.edu.

KU only awards transfer credit for courses that fall within the level, scope and content offered in our undergraduate curriculum. Many courses on military transcripts are technical or occupational in nature and are not accepted. KU does not award transfer credit based on ACE or Dantes recommendations.
